COURAGEOUS PLURALISM PROJECT
GPS GUIDELINES FOR SHARING

Be respectful of all
Represent yourself
Step back, step up
Don’t leave your beliefs at the door
Ask questions to seek clarification
Agree to disagree
Use “I” statements

Remember the importance of someone’s faith or moral traditions in their lives

Everyone has the right to pass

Created by Westminster College students at the Interfaith Youth Core (IFYC) Interfaith Leadership Institute held at New York University, August 2013. They were updated in collaboration with the IFYC Courageous Pluralism Project in February 2020.